

CEO's Secret Lover Novel Chapter 76 To 80

Chapter 76

Send her home

"What is it? "Are you very concerned about my love life?" Su Chen Hao's face didn't have much expression, and her tone of voice was also light.

Hearing him say this, Huo Xi Wen retracted the smile on her face and said somewhat guiltily, "Of course, if that Miss Lowe is really your lover, then the person you ought to marry is her. I cannot let you sacrifice your feelings for no reason in order to help me."

As she spoke, her face was filled with joy again. "Fortunately, she's just your housekeeper, hehe ..."

"Silly girl." The corner of Su Chen Hao's mouth raised slightly as he laughed bitterly.

"Big Brother Chen, you promise me, if you ever have someone you like in the future, you must tell me. At that time, we will go and get a divorce, and I will give the person you love a spot." Huo Xi Wen said as she looked at him sincerely.

Su Chen Hao looked in front of him and concentrated on driving, not replying to him.

"Of course, if I meet a guy I like, I'll also tell you. When the time comes, you can't let me fall in love with others!" Huo Xi Wen calculated in her heart.

"Alright." Su Chen Hao finally opened his mouth and spoke with a voice as calm as water.

He Mei Xin was still completely drunk on herself.

She wasn't the only one. All the men and women at the table were basically drunk.

As her "family", Luo Qing Yun naturally had to take responsibility of bringing her home safely.

However, the drunk He Mei Xin didn't have the ability to stand on her own.

Just lifting her out from the private box took a lot of effort.

As a pregnant woman, she didn't dare to make any big moves. Seeing that she was struggling, the waiter kindly helped her to get to the door and took her to the side of the road.

It was already completely dark outside, and a few small stars could be vaguely seen in the sky.

The city was neon and brightly lit, enough to obscure the less brilliant stars.

"Come, cheers! I'm not drunk, I can still drink." He Mei Xin danced on the side of the road while being supported by Luo Qing Yun.

"Mei Xin, calm down. Don't go crazy from the alcohol." Luo Qing Yun was powerless to retort. If she knew that her alcohol tolerance was so low, he wouldn't have let her drink so much.

Hearing Luo Qing Yun's words, He Mei Xin turned her head and looked at her with half-closed eyes. With one hand placed on her mouth, he said, "Shh, stop arguing, I want to talk to Moon."

"..." Luo Qing Yun extended her hand out to stop the taxi.

However, there were quite a few empty cars. It was unknown if they had seen the drunk and were afraid of dirtying their cars, but they had no intention of stopping.

Luo Qing Yun supported He Mei Xin with one arm, while she was leaning on half of her shoulder, she was extremely exhausted.

Just as she was at a loss as to what to do, a black car stopped in front of her.

As the car window rolled down, Su Chen Hao's ice-cold face appeared in her line of sight.

"Get in!" His tone was commanding.

Luo Qing Yun did not want to accept his help, so she rejected him, "No need, I can stop the carriage myself."

"Moon, can you hear me? "Let me tell you a secret. Actually, I am a fairy from the heavens ..." Beside him, He Mei Xin suddenly shouted towards the sky.

Seeing her so drunk, especially in front of Su Chen Hao, Luo Qing Yun felt so embarrassed that she wanted to dig a hole and hide in it together.

"You want your friend to yell at the moon all night?" Su Chen Hao coldly glanced at the drunk He Mei Xin and said.

At this time, Luo Qing Yun noticed that many passers-by were walking towards him and watching him act as if she was drunk.

After weighing the pros and cons, she clenched her teeth, opened the door, and stuffed He Mei Xin into the carriage. Then, she sat on the same seat as He Mei Xin.

The door closed and the clean, fresh air instantly filled up with the smell of alcohol.

Luo Qing Yun was a pregnant woman, and was especially sensitive to the rich smell.

Su Chen Hao who was sitting in the front row saw the painful expression on Luo Qing Yun's face as she covered her nose through the rearview mirror. She pressed a key button and the panoramic skylight above her head automatically opened up.

"I'm going to take off, I'm going to take off ..." The cool autumn wind blew onto people's face, bringing about a sense of coldness, but it was very comfortable. He Mei Xin drank the wine, his entire body heating up, and in that moment he screamed out in comfort.

Luo Qing Yun's face was filled with black lines. She only used her two hands to firmly hold her down, preventing her from standing up from her chair.

The Jingui district was located in the southern part of the city, which was about ten kilometers away from the center of the city.

Although the Y City's nights were not as scary as the daytime, but because there were some sections of the road that were being repaired, the roads were not that good, so Su Chen Hao's luxury cars were unable to display a good advantage in speed.

It was already an hour later when he sent them to the Jinni district.

After getting off the car, he walked to the back door. Without waiting for Luo Qing Yun to open the door herself, he had already opened the door ahead of her.

At this time, He Mei Xin had already quieted down and fallen into a deep sleep.

Luo Qing Yun couldn't support someone who was completely unconscious, but she didn't want to ask Su Chen Hao for help either. She could only grit her teeth and put a hand on her shoulder to forcefully pull her down from the carriage.

He Mei Xin fell asleep and allowed Luo Qing Yun to move her, but it was also because of this that she was dragged out of the carriage, and leaned straight towards Luo Qing Yun's body.

The gravity surrounding him attacked her, causing Luo Qing Yun to be forced backwards before she could even stand steadily.

This is bad!

Luo Qing Yun subconsciously extended a hand to protect her stomach, but in the next second, a warm palm suddenly blocked her path to her waist.

Without waiting for her to struggle, in the next second, he used his hands to help her stand firmly. He let go of her waist, and turned to support He Mei Xin, who was fast asleep.

"Which floor?" he asked, looking up at her.

"What?" Luo Qing Yun was startled, her mind was still thinking about the scene when he reached out to support her.

If he did not make a move just now, and Mei Xin had not suppressed him, the child in his stomach would have been in danger.

"I'll send you up." "No," he said.

"No ..." No need, we can do it ourselves. " Luo Qing Yun did not want to accept his help, not even a little.

"Are you sure?" Su Chen Hao did not try to force her to help, but sized her up, and asked with a calm and low voice.

Luo Qing Yun glanced at He Mei Xin, whose height and weight were both above her own. She was indeed very certain, but what she was sure about was not that she could do it, but that she could definitely not get this girl up.

Lowering her head, she did not say anything. At this moment, staying alive was of no benefit to her.

Since he wanted to help, he could just let him.

Just by exerting a bit of strength, he wouldn't let her return it, right?

"Fourth floor." Opening her mouth, she told him exactly what floor she had reached.

Chapter 77 - Move Out

Su Chen Hao raised his head and glanced at the pitch black pavilion's corridor in front of him.

This type of old apartment was cheap and didn't have an elevator. Every step he took, he had to rely on himself to climb up.

"Lead the way." Su Chen Hao instructed, and supported He Mei Xin up the stairs.

In a single breath, he went up to the fourth floor. Luo Qing Yun felt that she was a little out of breath, but on the other hand, she saw Su Chen Hao carrying a heavy load on his back, but his expression did not change at all.

His body was so healthy that it made people jealous and envious!

Luo Qing Yun thought angrily as she took out her key to open the door.

Su Chen Hao wanted to help him into the house, but Luo Qing Yun extended out her hand to stop him, "Mr. Su will take care of it here, thank you very much for tonight, the house is simple and crude, I will not call Mr. Su in to drink tea, please take care."

After saying that, without even looking at Su Chen Hao's face, he directly dragged He Mei Xin into the house, fell onto the ground and casually slammed the door shut.

Kill a donkey?

Destroy the bridge after crossing the river?

This heartless little woman, Su Chen Hao smiled helplessly.

Looking around, Zhang Xuan frowned.

Such a poor environment, was it a human's place to live?

In the early morning of the next day, Luo Qing Yun's set alarm clock rang across the entire small apartment building.

He Mei Xin who had a hangover was woken up, and felt a splitting headache.

She opened her eyes and saw that Luo Qing Yun had woken up. She frowned and rubbed her eyes as she asked, "Qingyun, why are you up so early?"

"Hurry up and get up as well, otherwise you'll be late for work." Luo Qing Yun said as she made the bed.

When He Mei Xin heard that she was late for work, she quickly got out of bed.

Luo Qing Yun went out and poured her a cup of warm water, "Drink a cup of water first, people will feel better. Your alcohol capacity is not good, so don't drink so much outside."

He Mei Xin took the water and drank it, then suddenly remembered something, she smacked her forehead and said: Oh yeah, I was drunk last night, how did we get back?

"How did you come back?" Luo Qing Yun rolled his eyes at her. Remembering that she had no choice but to accept Su Chen Hao's help because of her last night, he felt all sorts of unhappiness in his heart.

Seeing that, He Mei Xin knew that she had caused her trouble, so she put down the cup of water, pinched her shoulders and tried to curry favor with her, "Qingyun, I'm sorry, I've caused you trouble, I'll treat you something delicious tonight, I'll comfort you, ok?"

Luo Qing Yun opened her hand and sighed. "It doesn't matter if I'm harmed, but Mei Xin, you really can't drink that much wine again in the future. Think about it, you're a girl, and you drink so much.

"Yes, yes, yes. Mommy Yun was right in teaching me a lesson. This little one will never get drunk again." Even if you want to get drunk, and must be in the presence of Mommy Yun supervising the situation. You'll forgive this little one this once, OK? " He Mei Xin knew that Luo Qing Yun was concerned about him, and apologized with a spoiled face.

Luo Qing Yun was amused by her and could only shake her head. She turned around and went to the bathroom to wash her face and rinse her mouth.

"Oh yeah, Qingyun, why are you up so early? Aren't pregnant people addicted to sleep? Aren't you sleepy? " He Mei Xin combed her hair and stuck her head into the bathroom and asked.

"If you want to go to work, then so do I. There's nothing I can do even if I'm sleepy." Luo Qing Yun finished brushing her teeth, washed her face, and went back to her room to change.

Hearing her mention going to work, He Mei Xin immediately recalled her talking about being the housekeeper at Su Chen Hao's villa, and her heart immediately ignited with flames of gossip.

"Qingyun, are you really Mr. Su's butler?"

"Yes." Although she didn't want to.

"Oh god, you didn't even mention such an important matter to me. That's too disgraceful."

"It's just a job."

"Who says it's just a job? That was Su Chen Hao ah, if she became his housekeeper, wouldn't that mean she could see him everyday? How pleasing it was to work every day with that sort of thing. Qingyun, I really envy you, tell me, why didn't I think of studying in your department? It's great to be a housekeeper for the rich. " He Mei Xin's mind was filled with thoughts of the butler job, as he spoke with a face full of envy.

Su Chen Hao had always been in the habit of waking up early, if he was unable to make it to the villa when he was up, she would probably be ridiculed by him.

"I'll be going out first. Remember to lock the door when you leave later." She walked to the door and changed into her shoes, and without waiting for He Mei Xin who was still changing, she rushed to her room and quickly opened the door and left.

By the time she arrived at the villa, it was already 8: 45 in the morning.

Originally, she would have been able to get out at 7: 00 in 50 minutes. However, the bus was blocked by the rush hour, which was nearly an hour later than expected.

After entering the villa, she thought that Su Chen Hao would have already woken up and gone to the company. However, just as she entered the door, she saw a tall figure wearing a khaki household uniform walking down the stairs.

Luo Qing Yun was startled at first, but then immediately calmed down.

"You ... You didn't go to work? " She asked as she watched him walk straight to the sofa and sit down.

"I'm not used to working hungry." Without raising his head, he picked up the newspaper on the tea table and started reading.

What did that mean?

Luo Qing Yun thought for a bit and immediately understood what was going on. Was he blaming her for not making him breakfast and preventing him from going to work?

"There are so many breakfasts in the dining hall, isn't it the same if you buy them and eat them?" She kept thinking that he might be able to find fault with her.

Even though her voice was soft, he heard it.

He flipped a page of the newspaper in his hands and turned his head, staring at her with his deep black eyes. His thin lip opened his eyes and asked with a solemn expression, "What do I need you for?"

"..." Luo Qing Yun was speechless. It was her duty to cook, she should not have this kind of mentality.

"I'll make you breakfast now." Turning around, she prepared to head to the kitchen.

"Wait a moment." However, Su Chen Hao stopped her.

Luo Qing Yun turned around and looked at him blankly: "May I ask what Mr. Su has requested?"

Su Chen Hao's eyes dimmed slightly, but he did not bother with her exceptionally unfamiliar name. He reached out with his hand, took out a small envelope from the drawer of the tea table, and handed it over to her.

Luo Qing Yun looked at it, hesitated for a moment, but still extended her hand out to take it, "What is this?"

He opened the envelope and saw a bunch of keys lying inside.

Putting the key in her hand, she asked confused, "What kind of key is this?"

"I have a small apartment next door. You'll be living there from now on." His gaze fell back to the newspaper as he spoke with a carefree expression.

Luo Qing Yun suddenly felt that the key in her hand was a little hot.

His apartment?

"No need, I have a place to stay." She did not want to accept any more of his "favors."

"You want to be late every day? Or do you want me to go out hungry every day? " As if he had expected that she would refuse, he put down the newspaper in his hand and looked at her with a serious expression.

Chapter 78 - Staff Benefits

"..." She just didn't want to have anything to do with him other than work.

"This is for the welfare of the staff. The stewards only provide lodging and food."

The meaning behind her words was that this wasn't a special favor.

Seeing her lower her head and remain silent, his eyebrows raised and he asked, "Or do you want to stay here?"

Live here?

No!

Luo Qing Yun instantly retracted her eyebrows, and tightened her grip on the key. "No need, my apartment is fine."

If she were to really live here, facing him day and night, it would instead be weird if she didn't go insane.

"Very well, the address is on the envelope. You have a day off today, pack up your apartment and move your things in. At eight o'clock tomorrow morning, I hope, breakfast will be ready by the time I go downstairs. " After Su Chen Hao finished speaking, without even looking at her constantly changing little face, he turned and went upstairs.

Luo Qing Yun looked at the address on the envelope, then looked at the key in her hand, and sighed in her heart.

As expected, it was impossible to escape from his grasp. However, since it was a staff benefit, it couldn't be considered as taking advantage of him.

Furthermore, Mei Xin's house was a little far and the house wasn't big. With two people squeezed together on one bed, it was not very convenient.

After putting the key in her bag, she left the villa and looked for the address on the envelope.

When Su Chen Hao handed the key over to her, he only said that it was a small apartment.

However, when Luo Qing Yun took the elevator up to the top floor, she realized that this small apartment was almost as big as other people's small ocean houses.

Most importantly, because the house was on the top floor of the building, it was connected to the top floor. On the top of the building, there were a lot of rare plants that she could not identify, forming a beautiful garden in the air.

There were also tables and chairs in the garden for the owner to relax and entertain, very comfortable.

The whole decoration of the house was of a Chinese style, with a variety of mahogany ornaments visible. It was very valuable.

Such a luxurious house, in Su Chen Hao's mouth, was only a small apartment.

Luo Qing Yun sighed inwardly. As expected, she was still too young, and thought that the small apartment was really just a small apartment.

When she first came to the Y City, she did not bring any luggage. After that, she stayed at the villa, and all the things were bought for her by Su Chen Hao. When she left, other than a few changes in clothes, she did not take anything else.

Therefore, in He Mei Xin's house right now, all that was left of her luggage were the clothes she had changed into.

He could get Mei Xin to bring her directly to the company tomorrow.

No need to run again.

A crowded bus would take her 40 to 50 minutes. Her body really couldn't take it.

Turning around to look at the rooms, he found two bedrooms, one comfortable, two bathrooms, a large kitchen that enlarged the living room, and, most importantly, a large balcony that allowed a panoramic view of the entire city.

What surprised her even more was that the house had all the daily necessities.

Towels, towels, sheets, quilts, skincare products, washing supplies, kitchen utensils, seasonings, everything. Even the fridge was stuffed full.

And they were all new, not even the labels had been torn off.

She took a look at the brand names of the daily necessities. Previously, when she worked at a five-star hotel, her hotel's VIP rooms had cloth plants that specialized in working with foreign brands.

So when Luo Qing Yun saw the brands of the daily necessities, she knew that these items had probably been prepared specially by Su Chen Hao.

In the end, he still used up all his effort.

Except, she didn't dare accept this favor.

She picked up her phone and called Su Chen Hao.

The phone rang twice before someone answered.

"What is it?" It was his voice. It came from the phone in a low and steady voice. No emotions could be discerned from it.

"I can't live in this house." Luo Qing Yun said.

"Why?"

"The decorations are too luxurious. Moreover, the things inside are very expensive. They don't match the benefits a butler should enjoy."

"Then throw them away." His tone suddenly became impatient as he coldly said.

"..."

"Anything else?" he asked, obviously not wanting to say anything more to her.

"There's nothing else."

After the call ended, Luo Qing Yun looked at the luxurious and exquisite "new home" in front of him.

Maybe she was being too hypocritical, and these things may be expensive in her eyes, but in Su Chen Hao's eyes, they were not.

With his identity, it was not as though the employees around him could not afford these things.

Forget it, since he said it was a staff benefit, then let's just treat it as a staff benefit.

After all, compared to the villa, it was safer for her to live here.

After calming herself down, she went to the kitchen to get a cloth, intending to clean up the house.

However, wherever the cleaning rag went, everything would be clean, as if someone had cleaned everything beforehand.

It looked like she didn't even have to do hygiene anymore.

He walked to the sofa and sat down, then picked up his phone and called He Mei Xin.

"What?" You want to move? "Where are you moving to?" He Mei Xin was extremely shocked to hear that Luo Qing Yun was no longer staying with him.

"Mr. Su provided me with a place to stay." Luo Qing Yun said.

"Oh, that's right. I forgot that you're Mr. Su's butler. The butler is going to stay in his house."

"Not living in his home, but living in the vicinity. He arranged for us to ..."

"Staff dormitory." Luo Qing Yun corrected her, she did not want He Mei Xin to think of a man and woman alone in a room.

Although the dorm was a little luxurious, but according to Su Chen Hao's explanation, this was an employee dorm.

Sure enough, after He Mei Xin heard this, he couldn't help but feel discouraged, "Tsk, I thought you lived in a villa. "Alright then, it's better if you live here. Those who are pregnant, it's better not to be too reckless."

"Mhmm, then when you come to work tomorrow, help me bring those change clothes over. I'll go get them from your office." Luo Qing Yun said.

"No problem. While we're at it, let's celebrate the fact that you found someone to settle in. Let's have a good dinner together tonight."

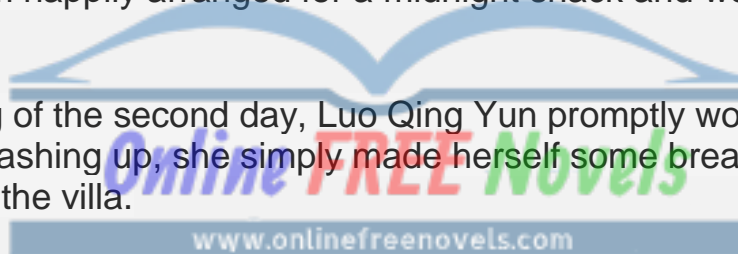

"At night? Then we can only have supper, you know, when I'm done with my work, it won't be early. "

"Oh, if that's the case, then we can change our supper to the day after tomorrow." Oh, if that's the case, then we can change our supper to the day after tomorrow.

"Alright."

The two of them happily arranged for a midnight snack and went to do their own business.

On the morning of the second day, Luo Qing Yun promptly woke up at seven o'clock. After washing up, she simply made herself some breakfast and rushed back to the villa.

This was because the residential area she was living in was next to the villa complex, which was very close. She only had to walk for six to seven minutes to arrive at the villa complex's entrance.

Although there were many cars in the house that could afford to buy a villa, not everyone would serve as a driver for the servants. Therefore, in order to make it convenient for the owners or servants who didn't have a car going in and out of the villa, they arranged for the electric car to be placed in front of the door, specially for returning.

Chapter 79 - Housekeeper's Duties

Luo Qing Yun had never ridden on the electric car in the villa area before, but today was her first time enjoying the humanized services provided by the property.

With the car, her speed would be extremely fast. In less than four to five minutes, she was sent to Su Chen Hao's villa.

The room was silent. After entering the password, he went in. It was only half past seven.

Half an hour was enough to prepare breakfast.

Su Chen Hao had not woken up yet, so she went straight to the kitchen, opened the fridge and started to make breakfast using the ingredients inside.

Previously, when Luo Qing Yun had been his butler in the X City Hotel, she had a better understanding of his appetite.

So for breakfast, he made his usual egg sandwich with freshly squeezed orange juice. He also made a small pot of crab meat porridge with several dishes of cold vegetables.

The combination of China and the West could be chosen by any ruler.

In fact, she knew that Su Chen Hao had a very high taste.

However, she was not a professional chef after all, so the amount of food she could cook was limited.

At 8 o'clock sharp in the morning, young master Su came downstairs in his pajamas on time.

He looked at Luo Qing Yun who was standing straight at the entrance of the dining hall as if she was waiting for him to show up.

On the dining table, there were two types of breakfast, one for Western style and the other for Chinese style. The newspaper for the day was also folded and placed on the left side of the host's seat.

Seeing him sit down, Luo Qing Yun turned around and went into the kitchen, poured a cup of coffee that he had just brewed from the coffee machine and brought it to his side.

Everything was arranged, so she said, "Please enjoy," and lifted her foot to leave.

"Where to?" Su Chen Hao said from behind her. Most likely because he had just woken up, and still carried a trace of weariness, his voice sounded a little lazy.

"Upstairs, clean up the room." Luo Qing Yun did not turn her head and only replied with a very formal tone.

"No rush, sit down and eat breakfast." he said.

"Thank you, I have already eaten breakfast, moreover, there is no reason for the butler to eat at the same table as the owner. If you have no other orders, I'll go do something else first. " Her attitude was very distant, and she left as soon as she finished speaking.

Su Chen Hao watched her leaving and instantly lost his appetite.

He was not a particularly patient person, especially when it came to dealing with women.

Luo Qing Yun was an exception to this rule, but no one knew how long this exception would last for.

In the bedroom on the second floor, when Luo Qing Yun came here again, she suddenly felt like she had been here for a lifetime.

The soft bed made of silk was somewhat messy.

That was the place where she and Su Chen Hao had been close to before.

After waking up from this bed countless times, she had never thought that there would be a day when this bed would have a new mistress.

At some point, an ashtray had been placed on the bedside table. Inside the ashtray, several cigarette butts had been snuffed out.

She didn't remember that Su Chen Hao had the habit of smoking. At least, in front of her, he had never seen him smoking before.

And now, looking at the cigarette butts, she couldn't help but wonder, why did he smoke?

Not in a good mood?

Or was it something else?

And then she realized she was thinking too much.

What did it have to do with her?

Now that she was only his housekeeper, why should she pay too much attention to his private life?

She poured the ash into the trash, turned around, and washed it in the bathroom. She wiped off the water stains on the cloth and prepared to put it on the night table, but then she thought better of it and changed her mind.

Somehow, she put it under the night table.

After cleaning up the bed and the sheets, he took a cloth and began to clean the entire bedroom.

Due to her previous work experience in the hotel's guest room, she tidied up her room quickly and was quite organized. As a result, not long after, the cleanliness in the room was almost done.

He went to the bathroom and took out his clothes from the laundry basket. The faint scent of cologne mixed with the unique scent of his body assaulted his nostrils.

This smell was very familiar to her. It was just that she no longer possessed it.

He walked out of the bathroom and prepared to go down to the laundry room, but he suddenly saw Su Chen Hao walking up the stairs at some point in time, and was currently changing his clothes in front of the wardrobe.

In front of the large mirror, he was half-naked, picking out a shirt.

The well-built muscles and perfectly shaped back lines seemed to exude a tempting light under the rays of the sun shining in from outside the window.

He had a good figure, she had always known.

In the past, she would have gone over to his chest and acted coquettishly.

But right now, she only took a glance from afar before she no longer dared to raise her head.

She held on to the shirt he had changed out of, and in order not to let her see her, she deliberately slowed her pace and tried to slip away.

"Halt." Unexpectedly, just as one of her feet stepped out of the bedroom, Su Chen Hao's voice came out from behind.

At this moment, he had already chosen a shirt and was putting it on.

Luo Qing Yun's footsteps paused, she turned her head stiffly, but did not look at him, and only lowered her eyes and asked: "What orders does Mr. Su have?"

"Come here." His gaze shot towards Luo Qing Yun through the mirror. His bright and clear black eyes revealed an order that could not be resisted.

Luo Qing Yun's expression froze, she put down the laundry basket in her hands and slowly walked over.

Standing right behind him, before she could even ask him what he wanted to call her over for, Su Chen Hao reached out and picked out a tie from the drawer before placing it in her hands, "Help me tie my tie."

"..." Luo Qing Yun raised her head and looked at him in shock.

Help him with a thin tie?

Hadn't he always been in his own department?

Why did he have to tell her to do this?

"You won't?" Seeing her standing there in a daze, he asked while buttoning his sleeves.

Nodding, she really didn't know how to do that.

She wasn't a proper housekeeper, so how could she wear a tie?

Not to mention, the relative intimacy of the tie was not something they should do.

He had thought that since she wouldn't, he would let her go.

Unexpectedly, after thinking for half a second, he opened his mouth and said, "I'll teach you."

"..." Who wants to learn it?!

Luo Qing Yun's expression was a little resistant.

"Satisfying all of the master's needs is the responsibility of a qualified butler." His tone was very official.

Luo Qing Yun frowned, and did not refute him.

Su Chen Hao reached out and took the tie from her hand, hanging it around his neck. Then, he grabbed her small hand and ordered her to grab the tie.

The moment he held her small hand, Luo Qing Yun only felt as if an electric current had directly passed through her fingers and entered her heart, causing her previously calm small heart to instantly and violently throb.

His face began to turn hot.

"Prepare the length of the general's belt, and then ..." He patiently taught her how to tie her tie. Did he glance at her flushed face, and the corner of his mouth curled up into a vague smile?

Chapter 80 - The Enemy

When his tie was finally tied, he looked at her with a condescending gaze.
"Have you learned it?"

How could Luo Qing Yun have the heart to be serious and learn how to tie a department? Hearing him ask that, she just stood there, not knowing how to reply.

"Didn't learn?" Then let's do it again. " He was patient now, and was about to untie his tie.

How could Luo Qing Yun want to go through another ordeal like that, she immediately nodded, "I will ... I learned it. "

Su Chen Hao looked at her unsincere expression, and after a moment, he raised his eyebrows and said meaningfully, "Housekeeper Luo is indeed very smart, I'll be able to teach you once. I'll leave the matter of putting on my tie to you from now on. "

"..." What did that mean?

Could it be that she would have to interact this way with him every morning in the future?

Heavens... Kill her!

Su Chen Hao changed his clothes and went out to work, but Luo Qing Yun sat on the balcony on the second floor, watching the video while painfully learning to tie her tie.

She knew that this was a problem that Su Chen Hao had left for her on purpose, but what use was it if he knew, other than her being obedient, what else could she do?

He made lunch at noon and called Su Chen Hao. However, he found out that Su Chen Hao wasn't coming back to eat lunch.

In order to prevent this kind of situation from happening again, she had called Qiu Ye early at three in the afternoon to ask about Su Chen Hao's trip, but she was told that Su Chen Hao's four o'clock plane was about to leave the country.

Not back for at least three days.

This meant that for the next three days, she did not have to face him nor did she have to come to the villa. She could freely move around for three days.

It was obviously a happy thing, but for some reason, that feeling of joy only stayed for a few seconds in her heart, and replacing it was a feeling of loss.

He probably went abroad with his fiancée, Miss Huo.

Thinking of this, she felt that she was extremely ridiculous.

Who was he taking, what did it have to do with her?

With a holiday, he naturally couldn't waste it.

At 5: 30 in the afternoon, she stepped on the phone and invited He Mei Xin to dinner together with her.

As a bachelor who didn't have a date, He Mei Xin naturally agreed with a happy face.

Because he knew that Luo Qing Yun was the housekeeper at Su Chen Hao's house and had fantasized that her salary would be very high, He Mei Xin chose a high-class Western Restaurant without hesitation.

When they arrived at the entrance, she didn't forget to ask, "Qingyun, I'll eat a big meal of yours. You should be able to afford it, right?"

After all, she had wanted to come to this place for a long time, but she had never had the chance to come here.

Although Luo Qing Yun felt bad for her purse, Mei Xin was her good sister and had helped her a lot when she was in trouble. Let alone having a big meal, even if it was an outrageous request, as long as she could fulfill it, she would agree to it.

The two of them arrived at the western restaurant. Under the guidance of the waiter, they chose a window that allowed them to view the city's nighttime scenery.

Just as he sat down, He Mei Xin pointed to a place not too far away, and said with a face full of shock, "Isn't it such a coincidence? You can even meet me like this? "

"What are you talking about?" Luo Qing Yun's gaze followed the direction in which her finger pointed towards, and saw two familiar people, but they were people she didn't see at all.

The other side seemed to have noticed her as well, and their eyes turned towards her.

"Is this the narrow path between enemies? Qingyun, should we change restaurants? " Taking advantage of the fact that he had yet to order his dishes, He Mei Xin wanted to leave.

Luo Qing Yun shook his hand, "It's alright, didn't you say you wanted to come to this restaurant to eat for a long time? "Since you're here, feel at ease."

"But ..." Do you really not mind? " He Mei Xin said worriedly in order to take care of Luo Qing Yun's mood.

"Why should I mind? They can come here, but can't we? You just have to rest assured and order, we'll just pretend that we didn't see them. "

"That's what you said, but if we pretend we didn't see them, they wouldn't pretend they didn't see us." He Mei Xin used the menu to cover her mouth, and said with a low voice: "Jiang Zhi Xin is walking over here."

"What?" After Luo Qing Yun heard this, her expression immediately became anxious.

But then, she calmed down.

What was there for her to panic about?

"What a coincidence, I didn't expect to meet you two here. Mei Xin, you are ungrateful, we are all friends, why did you only call Qingyun over when you came out to eat, and not me?" Jiang Zhi Xin walked to the dining table, and indifferently looked at the two seated people, and spoke with a strange tone.

After He Mei Xin heard this, she pouted her lips and secretly cursed in her heart. Who the hell wants to be friends with you?

The two of them were at a loss of what to do, was that okay?

But on the surface, he was smiling, "You are accusing me unjustly. Today, it's not me that is treating, it's Qingyun, so it's not me that is calling her, it's her that is calling me."

"I say, with your salary, Mei Xin, you probably won't be able to come to a restaurant like this." As Jiang Zhi Xin said this, he covered his mouth and laughed, then turned his gaze towards Luo Qing Yun who was at the side. "Qingyun, oh, that's not right. Hearing father say that Su Family did not continue to make things difficult for our Jiang Family, speaking of this, it is all thanks to elder sister. I really need to thank you properly. "

When Luo Qing Yun heard her call him "elder sister", her tone was ear-piercing, but no scars were revealed on her face, she only said faintly, "There's no need, I didn't do anything."

"What are you saying elder sister? If not for you, would Su Qi Ze have let this matter go? Speaking of which, I'm really curious how elder sister got to know that Second Young Master Su and actually became his girlfriend. Seeing how nice he's been to elder sister, I think that he really likes elder sister. " Jiang Zhi Xin was truly curious as to how Luo Qing Yun knew Su Qi Ze.

You have to understand that this second master of the Su Family perfectly inherited the cold and aloof nature of the Su Family. Although she possessed the bearing of a gentleman, when interacting with others, she always gave off a feeling of estrangement that was thousands of miles away. Even when standing beside him, it was as if there was a thick barrier separating them.

How could such a cold and aloof person be taken care of by her, Luo Qing Yun?

He couldn't figure it out.

The one who could not figure it out was He Mei Xin.

What was the situation with Su Qi Ze?

"Qingyun, you and Second Young Master Su? Could it be that the child in your womb is his? " Shocked, she blurted out.

"Zhixin, the dishes have arrived. What are you still doing here?" It was unknown when Zhou Yi had gotten up from his seat and walked over, but it was clear that he heard He Mei Xin's words just now, and was extremely shocked. In order to hide the excitement in his heart, he could only pretend to persuade Jiang Zhi Xin to go back to his seat.

However, the current Jiang Zhi Xin still did not have the mood to eat.

When she heard that Luo Qing Yun was pregnant with a child of Su Qi Ze's, she was completely stunned, "Is what she said true? Are you pregnant? The child is Su Qi Ze's? "

Luo Qing Yun felt that one head was two heads.
